UNCLE TOM'S CABIN

Uncle Tom's Cabin was authored by noted abolitionist Harriet Beecher Stowe and was published in 1852. The novel had a profound effect on attitudes toward African Americans and slavery in the United States and is said to have "helped lay the groundwork for the Civil War". The sentimental novel depicts the reality of slavery while also asserting that Christian love can overcome something as destructive as enslavement of fellow human beings. Uncle Tom's Cabin was the best-selling novel of the 19th century and the second best-selling book of that century, following the Bible.
